MAINTENANCE

These products provide needed field support if

- Your team's workspace requires station-to-station standing, kneeling, or even laying down
- Cross-tracking makes carpets and floors difficult to keep clean
- Your goals include supporting mobile team members and improving facility maintenance

ROVER™

ROVER™ lets your industrial athletes excel at any position on the field. Whether they require an anti-fatigue surface for standing, a cushion with great rebound for kneeling, or a comfortable head support for when they're on the ground, ROVER™ has them covered.

ROVER™ features a unique 3/4" nitrile-enhanced sponge that is non-conductive, petroleum resistant, and silicone free. If you spend time on your back, use ROVER™'s built-in interlock to combine a rolled ROVER™ with a horizontal one for both head and upper-back support.

With ROVER™, your team can play at home or away and always be guaranteed a triple play. Take your game to a new level with the most versatile kneel mat on the market!

Clean Room Mat

Hard work can be messy. The Clean Room Mat will keep that mess from being tracked into other areas. The tacky surface pulls and traps dirt and dust from shoe soles during demolition, standing, asbestos remediation, and day-to-day operations.

Simply pull off and discard individually numbered sheets as needed (available in 30 or 60 sheets). Use on low-pile carpet, tile, or concrete surfaces.

Mud Chucker™

The name says it all: This rugged entrance solution was made to chuck mud. The recessed step-in area with rubber fingers on the sides and bottom remove mud, as well as dirt, grass, salt, and snow. The durable ridges and sidewalls work in all seasons, keeping the debris out of your building year-round.

Mud Chucker™ mats can be used as portable shoe scrapers for off-site jobs or traveling workers, or can be permanently installed at facility entryways.
